vircles. Herbert L. Satterles of New York. brother-in-law of J. P. Morgan, talked of the latest move of the Illinois champions of the Colonel who have placed J. Ogden Armour at the head of a committee to boost the Oyster Bay inan. He explained that it does not constitute with the "favorite son" ambitions of Senator Sherman. The idea is to win ever Illinois delegates in the event Senator over Illinois delegates in the event Sena-

or Sherman retires.
George von L. Meyer, who heads the Republicans who have organized in the interest of Col. Roosevelt, will be there to-morrow to direct the missionary work. George W. Perkins will get here Thursday to lead the Progressive party hosts and incidentally do some work among skepublicans. Mr. Perkins hopes to see Col. Roosevelt nominated in both conventions.

But the "favorite sons" did not accept this view. On the contrary they were much perturbed, as they saw in the move an attempt to corral delegates wherever possible, and they produced information that similar organizations were being formed in all of the States having favorite sons.

That the managers of booms for Root, Weeks, Burton, Fairbanks, Sherman, Cummins and others regard Roosevelt, and Hughes as the men they have to beat is evident in their every action and fs brought out scores of times a day. None can speak of the fight without teoming back to the names of Roosevelt and Hughes.

numbering sixty, as against 212 in 1912. The fights are mostly local, due to the factional quarrels of the South, and it is not believed that they will cause much trouble. In a few instances the contests have the old Roosevelt aspect.

The subcommittee on arrangements will have finished its labors to-morrow at a meeting to be held at the Congress Hotel and the real business of the convention will begin when the national committee takes hold on Thursday.

The first business probably will be the ratification of the selection by the subcommittee of Senator Warren G. Hardcommittee of Senator Warren G. Hard-ing of Ohio for temporary chairman of the convention. What little opposition existed to Senator Harring has been fromed out since the convention crowds began to gather and there is no question bout unanimous approval by the na-ional committee. Chairman Hilles would like to have
